BOX 6090, MONTREAL

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I have a little additional information regarding Isaac Allan Fraser which may or may not be of any help.

Isaac Allan's father's name was Hezekiah and he lived in Belleville - he was probably born about 1818. He is listed in the directory at Belleville as being a carriage-maker and lived at North Alexander Street, where Isaac Allan lived. Isaac Allan had a Wagon Works under his name located at Thorow near Belleville with his mail address listed as Belleville P.O.

Because of the similarity of the names of Isaac and Allan in the Ernesttown and Belleville families, the proximity of the two districts, the fact that they are both U.E. Loyalist families, and the mention of the woolen mills makes me still believe there may be some connection between these people. I am not trying to claim relationship between them, but I do want to find out where the Belleville Frasers hailed from and a bit of their ancestry.

Perhaps in your extensive file there may be a name Hezekiah mentioned - if so I would be very much interested.

Thank you once again for your kind consideration, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Margaret S. Fraser

P.S. As mentioned previously, if I can look up any other names in our Montreal Directory, or do anything else for you, just let me know.

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

Here's your "old pest" back again, but this time I am not after information - I may have something of interest for you, but perhaps you may already have knowledge of it.

The attached letter is self-explanatory. You can see that there were two U.E. Loyalist families who had woolen mills by the name of Fraser, and there is a similarity between the families even to the member of the Legislative Assembly, so I guess it is understandable for me to have been "mixed up".

Isaac Allan Fraser, I have found out, is definitely connected with the Alexander Fraser family, and the Massey connection has come to light. One of the Massey descendents is John Massey of Cobourg. I believe his grandmother was Isaac's sister. He has the Massey family tree which indicates the connection.

It still seems a bit odd that the names Isaac and Allan should have appeared through the both Fraser families of the two woolen mills. Who knows perhaps these two families are related after all. Miss Asselstine told me she was related to Frasers through both sides of her family. With the huge families produced by both I have come to the conclusion that most of the Frasers in Ontario must be related!

Yours sincerely,

(Miss) Margaret S. Fraser

P.S. The great-grandfather and great-great grandfather are buried in an old cemetery at Cobourg.

Miss Margaret S. Fraser,

August 20, 1963

Dear Miss Fraser,

To-day, Mr. W.P. Hinman of this town, handed me the letter you had written to him under the date August 15, 1963, in which you are enquiring about the early Fraser family who operated a woollen mill here. Due to the fact that I have lived here all my life and my father was here all his life too Mr. Hinman felt that perhaps I could supply some information for you, so he handed me your letter saying, "You answer it."

Here is the story my father told me when I was in my teens, (I am now age 66) -

"When Mr. Fraser ran the Woollen Mill here in Cobourg, he lived in a large gray brick house across the road from the mill. The mill at that time was powered by water power and there was a good sized mill pond to the east of the Fraser home. There were twelve children in the Fraser family and one of them was drowned in the mill pond. The Fraser home was considered the show place of Cobourg. They had landscaped grounds, driveways, and horses and carriages."

I am not sure, but I believe that Mr. Fraser died here in Cobourg. At any rate the house changed hands a number of times over the years and finally burned down in 1932. In 1933 I acquired the land on which the old Fraser home stood and built a house there. When I received the Abstract of Title to the property I read where Mary M. Fraser, Widow, had sold the property to William Michael Fox, Priest, on April 18, 1887.

Next day, August 21. To-day I went to the local Registry Office to see what I could dig out of the old records. Here is what I found:

The Mr. Fraser who lived here was Alexander Fraser and his wife was Mary Mead Fraser. Apparently they got the property here sometime in the 1870's. As near as I could find out Mr. Fraser died around 1883 and his widow held title to it until 1887. At the time she sold the property she was living in Detroit. As to the names of their children, I was unable to find out anything, nor was I able to find out who Mr. Fraser's parents were.

There is a Fraser Street in Cobourg and the old book of Cobourg history says, "It takes its name from Alexander Fraser, one-time member of the Legislative Assembly for West Northumberland County."

It is my hope that this meagre information may be of some assistance in your search for Fraser history.

Sincerely yours,

Victor W. Climo

Dr. H.C. Burleigh, M.D.,
Burleigh, Ontario.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

The Montreal City Directory lists a Rosamond Lamb, 4090 Beaconsfield Avenue, Montreal 28, Que., but no Rosemary. The Directory lists all residents of Montreal. If I can be of any further assistance to you, don't hesitate to get in touch with me.

The reason why I became interested in Daniel Fraser was because I wrote to the Archives at Ottawa for a record of Isaac Allan Fraser, my grandfather, who at one time lived at Brooklin because his son, Albert, was born near there. They wrote back to say that there had been an Isaac Fraser petitioned for land near Brooklin in 1801 and that was the only Fraser they had in their archives living near Brooklin. I obtained a copy of the petition and on it there is mention of Daniel Fraser being the father of Isaac.

My father has been dead for twenty-five years and would be 94 if he were living. My sister and myself (twins) were born when my father was in advanced years, and being rather young we were not too interested in our ancestors, but I do remember him saying he came from U.E. Loyalist stock; mentioning soldiers, and also mentioning the fact that his branch of the family were related to those who had the Fraser looms (but I thought they were the ones located near Inverness in Scotland.) We have very old photographs of the Frasers. One of them has "Isaac Fraser, Canada," written on the reverse side, but unfortunately there is no indication of where this picture was taken.

As I mentioned before, my father was born in 1869 near Brooklin, so his father presumably lived there too. I know my grandfather was born in 1843 but am only presuming he was born in Brooklin. He had another son Josiah who died and is buried at Campbellford (died 1896). They had a sister Emma who married a "Massey" of the well-known Massey family. Isaac Allan Fraser is buried in Belleville.

Box 6090
MONTREAL 3
CANADA

There are pictures taken of the Frasers at Brooklin, Cobourg, Port Hope and Belleville, and many others with no indication of where they were taken.

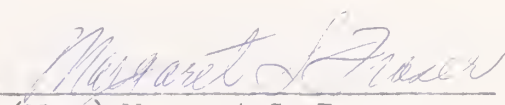

Perhaps, as you infer, our family has no connection with the Ernesttown Frasers, but the name Allan and Isaac have appeared through our family through the years - my older brother is called Allan as well.

I want to thank you most sincerely for all the time you have taken to help me out. There is an old-timer nearly 100 years old by the name of W.A.W. Fraser living at Campbellford. I intend visiting him in the hope he may be able to set me on the right track.

It could be that one of Daniel's many children is one of the ancestors.

Thank you again for your kindness and consideration. Sometime when I am in Kingston I should very much like to visit you and see the file you mentioned.

Yours sincerely,

(Miss) Margaret S. Fraser

P.S. Isaac Allan Fraser married Mary Elizabeth Sanderson of Belleville and operated a "carriage works". We have an old picture drawn by an "Asselstine" of a newsboy.

29. JAMES CROSSET

James and Benjamin Crosset each had 100 acres of land from Sir William Johnson, taken March 25, 1770. Both were enlisted men in the Associated Troops of Tryon County. Sime, in 'Trappers of New York', says that one of the Crosseets was killed in Major Ross' Raid, October 25, 1781.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough Patent; MacGowen, p. 175.

30. JACOB HOYER Tenant Royal Grant

There were many families of Hoyers, Myers, Mayers, etc. in the Mohawk Valley. This man probably lived at Plover Field, and was killed at Oriskany. He was the son of "Hoyer" who, with Snooks, Rein, Keller, Ogle, and Chumley, was in Mark Petry's Company, May 9, 1767.

References: MacGowen, p. 13; Frothingham, "History of Montgomery County" p. 85.

31. MICHAEL SHOUFFE

b. Germany 1732. Came to America in 1766, with wife, Isobeth. Had 100 acres of Sir William Johnson as of March 25, 1770. His son, Michael, Jr., died in 1790, and father of ten children. The family continued to live at West Fort, Town of Johnston, a half mile from Montgomery original home, until the end of the 19th century. Michael Shouffe was in the Associated Troops of Tryon County. The family later spelled their name "Shobe", through one "Shobe" served in Jessup's Loyal Rangers during the revolution.

References: Frothingham, Family Sketches, pp. 134 & 139; MacGowen, p. 175 where the name is spelled 'Michael Shouffe'.

32. MICHAEL QUIN

b. Ireland. Came to America in 1766. With his brother, John, he had 100 acres of Sir William as of March 25, 1770. Both went to Canada with Sir John Johnson in 1776, and both served in the R.R.N.Y. With Michael's consent, John received the whole compensation for their losses in the War. Michael settled in the Eene District; John at Cornwall, Ontario.

60. FELIX GRANT

b. Scotland. Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1778. Left for Canada in 1777; served in R.R.N.Y. Was married. Settled at Charlottenburgh, Ontario.

References: Kingsborough Rent Roll; 1904 Ontario Archives, p. 1067, where he is called "Finley".

61. ALEXANDER CAMERON

b. Glamorgan, Inverness-shire, 1727. <sup>d. January 1823</sup> Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1778. Went to Canada in 1780; in R.R. N.Y. until end of War. Settled at Cornwall, Ontario. Died at Williamstown, January 1823. Married Mary McDonald (d. 1817); had at least two sons: James (1781-1829), and John Duguid (1777?-1857), both prominent in the North West Company. Biographical notes on both sons are in Wallace, "Documents Relating to the North West Company", Champlain Society, Toronto, 1930. rest of family are buried at St. Andrew's Cemetery, Williamstown, Ontario.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough; 1904 Ontario Archives p. 1093; Information kindly given by Dr. B. Macdonald Jones, North Cayon, Ontario.

62. WILLIAM CHIERCUM

b. Scotland. Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1778. Went to Canada in 1777; in R.R.N.Y. Had a wife and at least one child. Settled at Charlottenburgh, Ontario.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough; 1904 Ontario Archives p. 1092; Haldimand Collection B. 258, p. 150.

63. ARCHIBALD McDONELL

b. Scotland. Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1780. There are three Archibalds on U. E. Loyalist lists. Captain Archibald, son of John of Leek, had no lands. One was a Lieutenant in the 84th Regiment who settled at Fort George. The third was a private soldier who settled at Cornwall, Ontario. Of the two in the Lodge, it is impossible to say which of the latter had land on Kingsborough Patent. The other may have had lands of the Johnsons on another tract of land.

105. JOHN CAMERON (Glen Morrison)

b. Glen Morrison, Inverness-shire. Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1778. Went to Canada in 1777; returned same year to his family, remaining some years. Never served as a soldier, but made himself useful assisting scouting parties and procuring intelligence. Had a son in 1st Battalion, R.R.N.Y. His witness, significantly, was Captain Walter Sutherland, R.R.N.Y. who is seen from the Haldimand Collection to have been one of the most active members of the British Secret Service. Settled at Cornwall, Ontario. This may well be the John Cameron who left Johnstown in 1785, and whose wife's letters describing the hardships of Loyalists after the Peace have survived. Dated Breadalbane, May 12th, 1785, Nancy Jean Cameron wrote a cousin in Scotland: "When I leave this beautiful Mohawk Valley and the lands I had hoped we should always hold, I shall no more the words Tory and parricide. Our grandparents little thought when they sought this new land after the risings for Prince Charlie that a flitting would be our fate---but we must follow the old flag wherever it takes us. It is again the March of the Cameron Men and wives and children must tread the hard road."

106. FINLY BOSS (Finlay)

b. Scotland c. 1740. Came to America in 1773. Had 100 acres on Kingsborough Patent; rent due September 25, 1778. "part of Patent of Sir William Johnson known by the name of Scotch Bush in Tryon County". Went to Canada in 1776; 1st Battalion, R.R.N.Y. Settled at Charlottenburgh, where he shared a lot with John Murchison (No. 40). Later, he served at Minden and Jena, returning to Charlottenburgh where he died in 1830, aged 90.

Miss Margaret S. Fraser,
Box 6090, Montreal 3,
Quebec.

Dear Miss Fraser:

This will reply to your letter of 6th inst.

Something makes me suspect that we are not writing about the same Isaac Fraser. Isaac Fraser, son of Daniel Fraser, the Loyalist, as far as I can ascertain, spent all his life in Canada in Annetstown Township. Whittredly he did draw 200 acres of land on the date stipulated by you. If he sold in the following year (1812), it is no indication that he resided near Franklin. The Isaac to whom I refer married 12 Jan., 1802,

Martha Staring. Ceremony performed by Rev. Robt. McDevall in Bath

Two of their children were baptized by the same person, namely,

Catherine, born 22 Oct., 1801, baptized 14 Nov., 1802; died 25 May, 1885;
married Isaac Asselstine.

Charles, born 15 Jan., 1810; married 24 Nov., 1835, Catherine May.

There may have been children born between the above children. If so, there is no record.

In addition to these, there were the following known children of Isaac 'et ux':

Allen M., 1819-1897, married 10 April, 1840, Harriet Brock.

Isaac, L., born 29 April, 1816; died 30 Sept., 1831.

Nancy, died 25 Aug., 1832, aged 7 1/2 years, 6 months, wife of David Wilsforth.

Annab, born 13 May, 1811; died 12 March, 1861, wife of Robert Wilsforth.

William C., born in 1817; died 19 March, 1843.

This Isaac, son of Daniel, the Loyalist, was a prominent man in the community. From other things, he was Colonel of the militia, Justice of the Peace, auditor, registrar of Senior & Wellington County, etc. He was the builder of the Fraser, later Asselstine Woolton Mill, Annetstown Township (which was removed recently to Pioneer Village, near Morrisburgh, Ont.). He sold, or gave, the mill to his son-in-law, Isaac Asselstine, whose son, his son, carried on the business.

I have been wondering just what led you to believe that you belonged to the Annetstown Loyalist Frasers. Perhaps, if you gave a little more background, I might be able to help. I can say one thing, Allen is a given name appearing in this family through the generations. For instance, there is buried near here

Allen M. Fraser, 1829-1908.

Lydia M. Frailek, his wife, 1830-1889.

also

Allen M. Fraser & wife (see above) buried in another neighboring cemetery.

Do this for me. Can you find address (by phone book) of a Miss Rosemary Lamb in Montreal or Lachine, or in vicinity?

Yours sincerely,

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

Thank you so very much for your prompt letter concerning my queries about Daniel Fraser. You are certainly "a real mine of information"! It was really thrilling to get the information.

Would I be imposing on you too much to ask you to give me the names of Isaac's children? I have come to a "dead end" concerning Isaac. He must have remained in the Brooklin area after he sold his property to Joseph Wiley in 1802 because my grandfather, Isaac Allan Fraser and his son, Albert, my father, were born near Brooklin. Isaac Allan was born in 1843 and Albert in 1869. They moved to Belleville and are buried there. However, I am unable to obtain any record of Isaac at Brooklin after 1802.

I am very interested in seeing the file on the Fraser family. I have a brother, Gordon E. Fraser, who lives in Kingston and has a camp on Nicholson's point. I do not believe he is as interested in his ancestors as I, but he may get in touch with you - if he does you will know that I am his sister. When I am up for a visit I would very much like to meet you and see the file. It seems strange, after all these years, Gordon should be living near to where his ancestors lived, having been born in Montreal.

I cannot thank you enough for all the help you have been. You must be a very interesting person with your store of historical information.

Yours very sincerely,

Margaret S. Fraser

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Professor G.F.G. Stanley, Professor at the Royal Military College of Canada, referred you to me as a "real mine of information" concerning the history of United Empire Loyalists of Ernestown Township, so I have taken the liberty of writing to you in the hope of obtaining information concerning an early settler of this district.

The settler in question was named Daniel Fraser, U.E. He lived in Ernestown Township during the early 1800's. Daniel married Sarah Conklin in 1760 and had been an artificer in Colonel Ban's artillery. It is believed he died in 1812.

I would be interested in knowing if Daniel came originally from the State of Michigan, near Port Huron; old family records indicate that part of the Fraser family lived there during the 1860's and onwards. Also it would be of interest to know where Daniel's property was located in Ernestown Township and the names of his children. It is known that he had at least one son named "Isaac".

Further data concerning Daniel are as follows which may be of some help:

Isaac, son to Daniel, petitioned for 200 acres of land located a short distance north of Brooklin. The petition was granted on February 24th 1801 and was sold on the 20th of November 1802 to Joseph Wiley. It is believed Isaac had a son, Joseph, who in turn fathered Isaac, Josiah and a daughter (who married a "Massey"). They remained in the Brooklin district, operating a saw mill, until about 1869. Isaac had a son Albert - they moved to Belleville, and are buried there. Josiah went on to Campbellford and is buried there. He had children one of whom was named "Thelbert".

Dr. H.C. Burleigh

2 May 1963

Perhaps some of this information may be considered irrelevant in endeavouring to find out where Daniel Fraser's property was located, what were his other children's names, and if he came from what is now the State of Michigan, but perhaps every fact supplied may make the task easier.

I do hope I am not imposing on you too much by writing this letter. Any facts, no matter how trivial, will be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance for your kind consideration, I am

Yours sincerely,

GRACE CHURCH

CANTON, NEW YORK

November 29, 1958

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

Many thanks for your letter of the 25th. You have added a bit of information to my knowledge of William Fraser, L.R., and made some helpful suggestions as to where to look for family tombstones. If they still exist, I suspect they will be found near the Presbyterian Cemetery of Cardinal which is on the former estate of Captain Thomas Fraser, L.R.

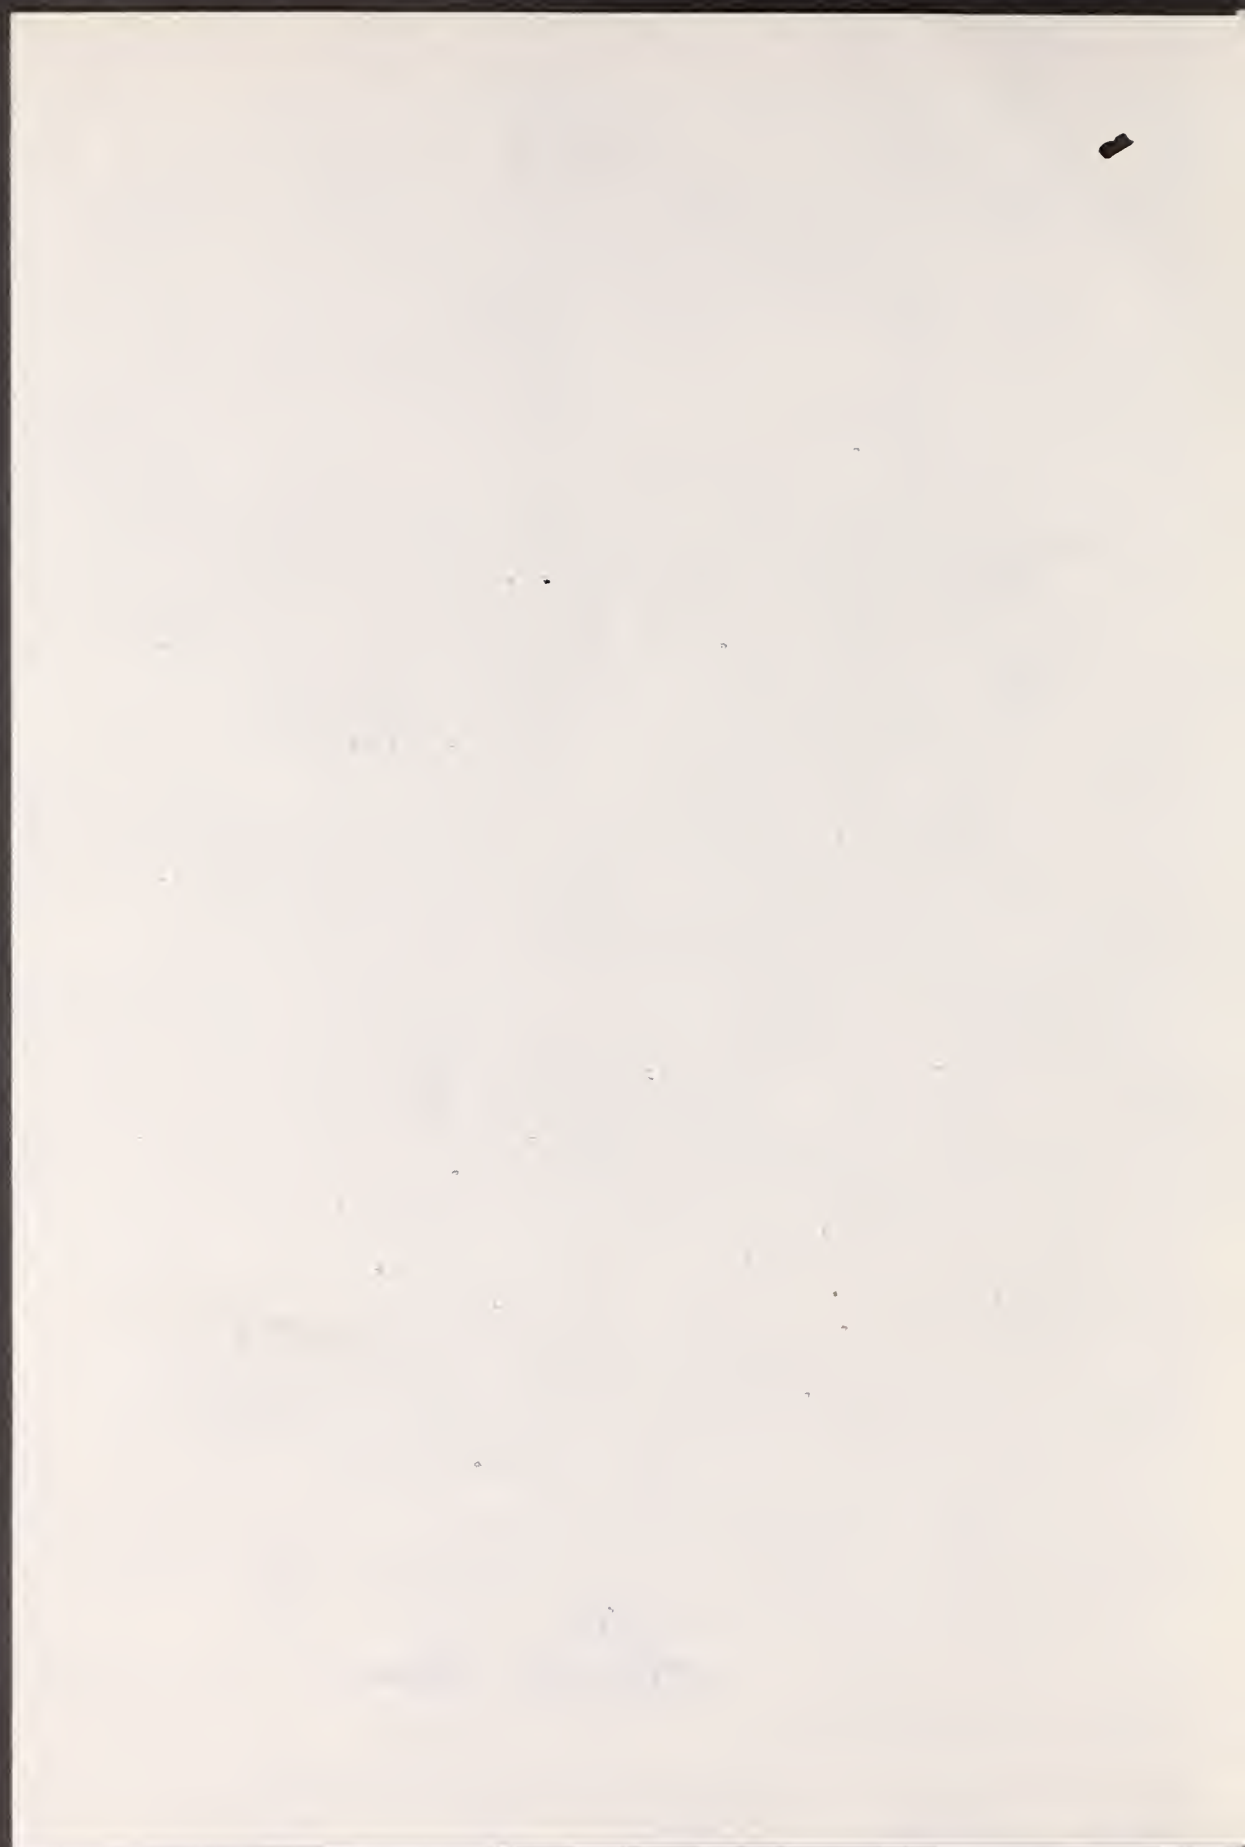

Your information on the Daniel Frasers is of interest, as their names appear in several places in colonial and Revolutionary documents. One of them must have been stationed with his company in the Mohawk Valley in 1767, for there is a record of a baptism of Catherine Fraser, daughter of Daniel and Catherine, in the church records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Stone Arabia. At that date, most of the Presbyterians looked to the Reformed Churches in that area for spiritual ministrations, as the only alternative was the Lutheran churches. The nearest Anglican churches were at Schenectady, and, later, at Johnstown. There was no dearth of Frasers in the Mohawk Valley at that period. But nearly all, except my ggg grandfather, had gone to Canada before 1783. He died at Johnstown in 1782. No one knows whether he would have gone too if and when he could. His widow and two children staid on his farm, and my father was the last member of the family born there, in 1869.

With sincere thanks to you for your courtesy, please believe me

Faithfully yours,

William Fraser

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Gordon Lapp of Meaford, Ontario, has suggested that I write you in connection with my effort to find the whereabouts of the graves of two members of my family who were in Jessup's Corps at the Revolution. They were Captains William and Thomas Fraser, both of whom settled ~~either~~ in Edwardsburgh and Matilda. They had extensive holdings, and may have reached into the Bay of Quinte area too.

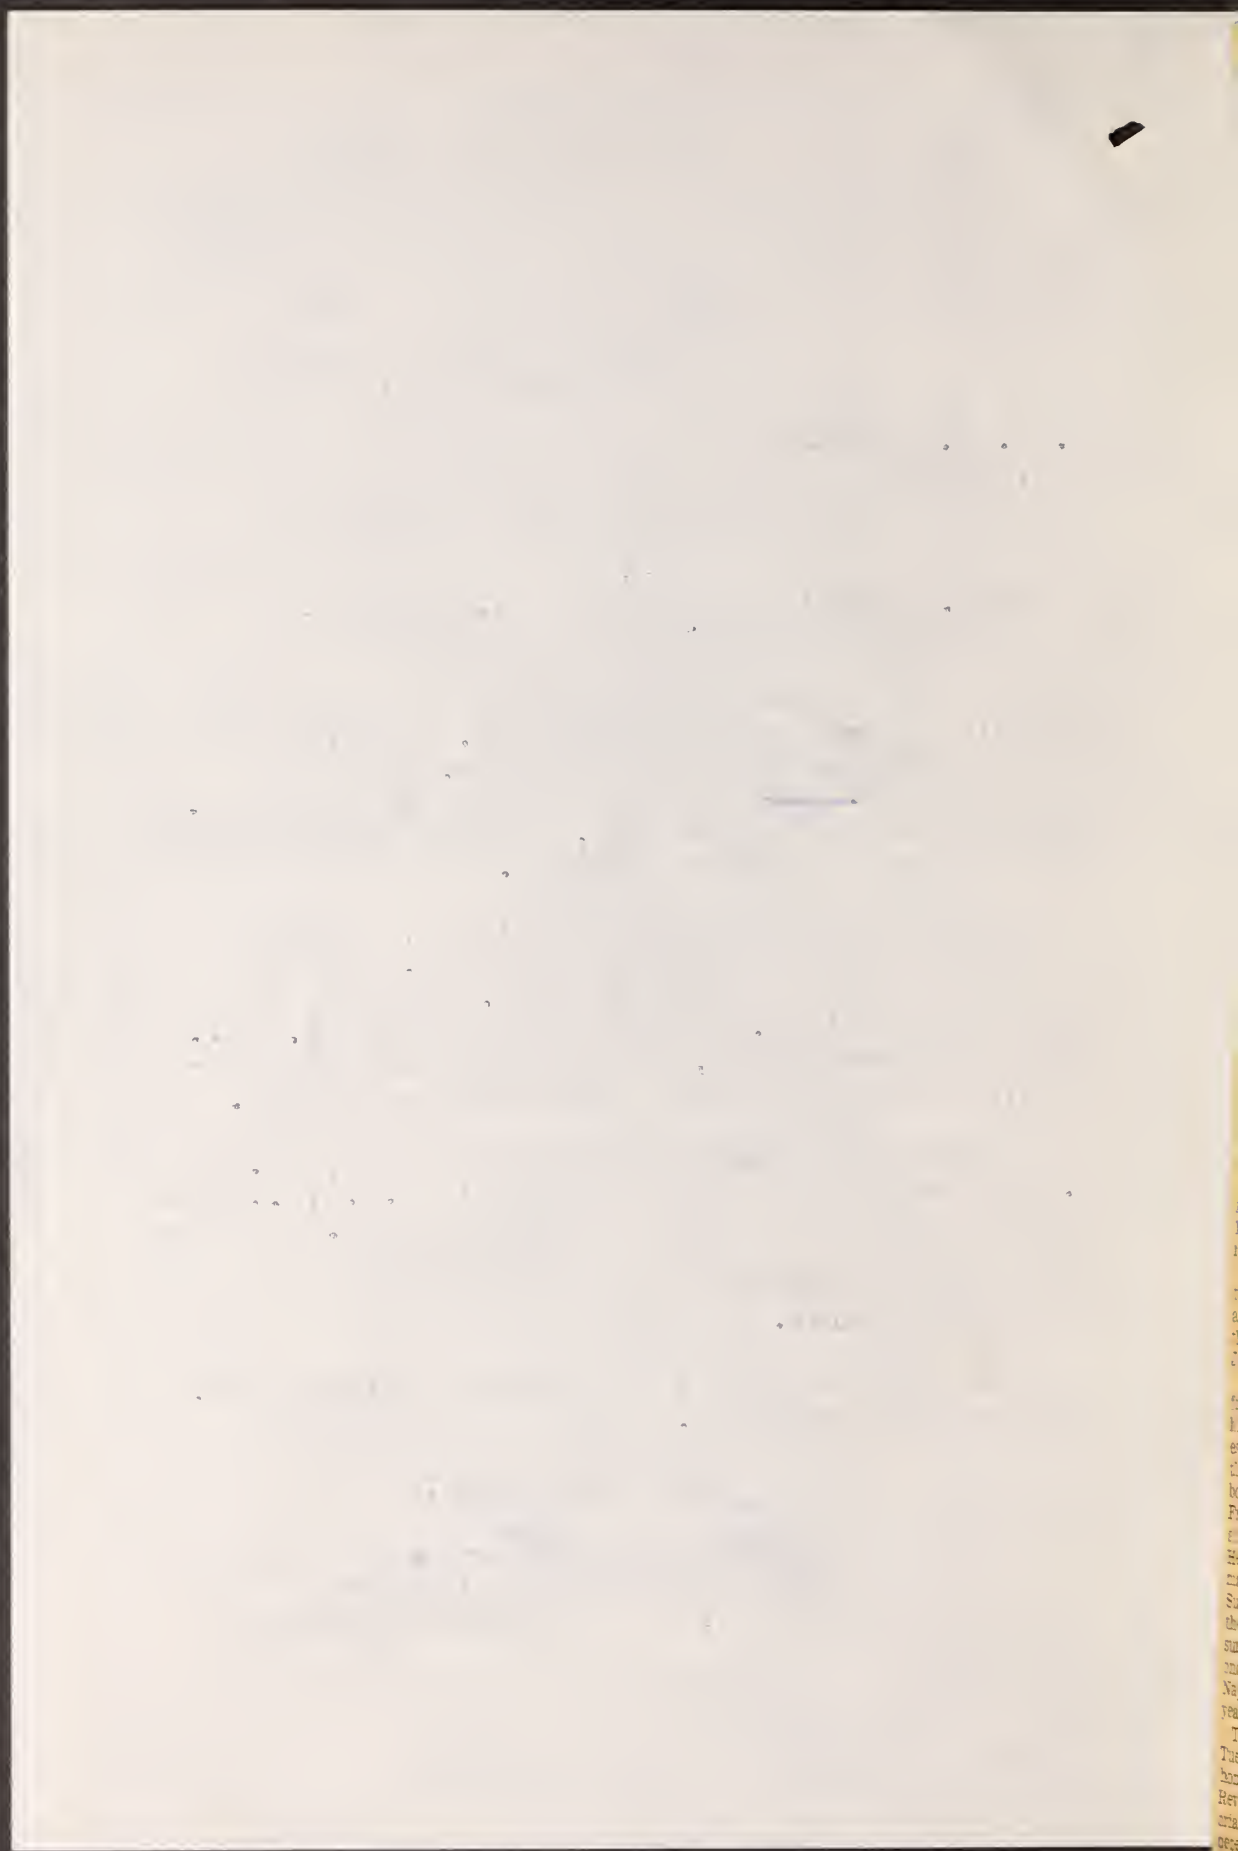

Not much is known about William. Thomas was member for Glengarry around 1800, and was appointed to the Council in 1815. He died in the autumn of 1821. His eldest son was Lt. Col. Richard Duncan Fraser, Member for Leeds or Grenville, whose widow died at Brockville in 1870.

There were also two Daniel Frasers, Sr. & Jr., who were in Sir John Johnson's R.R.N.Y., and who I am quite sure settled in your area. Do you know anything about them? Their names do not appear in the 1904 Ontario Archives Report of the Compensation List.

If you can help in any way in this matter, I shall be most grateful.

Sincerely yours,

Duncan Fraser

The Late W. W. Cliff

1938

The following is an extract from the account of the life of William Wesley Cliff, taken from the Carleton Place Canadian of Thursday, October 27th. Mr. Cliff died at Carleton Place on Sunday, October 23rd :

Mr. Cliff was born in Kingston on September 25th, 1852, and was thus in his 87th year. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. George Cliff, and when he was but seven years of age the family moved to Napanee, where he received his education. After leaving school he entered a law office, intending to make this his lifework, but after a year or two the lure of the printing business drew him and he served his time with the Napanee Standard. Following his graduation from this office, he received an urgent appeal from a former Carleton Place resident, the late William Bradin, to come to this town and start a Conservative newspaper, an invitation which he accepted, and early in January, 1876, he issued his first paper, known at that time and for many years thereafter as the Central Canadian.

In 1913 he received the appointment of collector of customs at this port and disposed of the newspaper in April of that year to R. L. McDonald. The latter only continued in possession for a couple of months when the paper was taken over by Mr. Cliff's former foreman, E. V. Barber, who was succeeded in April, 1914, by F. A. J. Davis, the present editor. Mr. Cliff retired from the customs appointment in 1926 and has since lived a life of retirement.

During his lifetime he belonged to various fraternal organizations, among others being the A.O.U.W., the Sons of England, and St. John's Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

He was married three times, his first wife being Eliza Agnes Fraser, his marriage taking place at Ernestown on August 31st, 1876. Of this union three children were born, two of whom survive, Dr. G. Fred., of Kingston, and Miss Gladys at home. His second wife, Sarah Helen Fraser, died in 1913. He was married again in February, 1915, to Susan Willoughby, a daughter of the late William Willoughby, who survives. He is also survived by one brother, George A. Cliff, of Napanee, who is now in his 92nd year.

The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon at the family home, conducted by his minister, Rev. Donald Munro, B.A., of Memorial Park United Church, of which deceased was a member.

FIVE TOMATO SOUPS

TOMATO AND MILK

Four cups strained tomatoes, or tomato juice; one and one-half cups hot milk, one-half teaspoonful of baking soda, one teaspoon salt; four tablespoons cornstarch.

Method: Bring the tomato juice to the boil, add the salt and soda and mix well. Mix the cornstarch with a little cold water and thicken the tomato juice. Let it boil for a few minutes, stirring well. When you wish to serve the soup, add the hot milk a little at a time, stirring well. Do not let the soup boil after the milk is added or it may curdle.

TOMATO AND BEEF BROTH

Method: Use strained tomatoes and beef stock in equal quantities. Thicken with flour or cornstarch, using one tablespoon flour to every cup of liquid.

TOMATO AND SQUASH

Four cups strained tomatoes. One cup cooked strained squash. Three and one-half tablespoons flour. One tablespoon butter. Pepper and salt.

Method: Put the strained tomatoes and squash and butter into a pan and mix well. Bring to the boil and thicken. Season well with salt and pepper. A larger proportion of squash may be used if desired.

TOMATO AND TAPIOCA

Five cups strained tomatoes. Two tablespoons minute tapioca. One tablespoon sugar. One teaspoon of salt.

Method: Bring the tomatoes to the boil and stir in the tapioca. Add the sugar and salt and boil for five minutes, stirring well.

FRASER

Lt. Col. H. C. Burleigh, M. D.
Box 9
Bath Ontario
Canada

Dear Colonel Burleigh:

I see in the spring issue of Loyalist Gazette that you are listed as the genealogist for the Bay of Quinte Branch of the U.E.L. Mr. Norman Horn has suggested that perhaps my ancestor came from the Bay of Quinte area so I am hoping that perhaps you can give me a clue.

Joseph FRASER (FRAZER) was born 1780, Canada E. (That is the way it is listed in the 1860 Census of Macomb County, Michigan. Would Canada E. be Bay of Quinte?) He married Margaret ? before 1805. (Have written to Ottawa Archives for check of Marriage Bond index.) He had a son, Joseph, Jr., born 1805, Canada W. He died after 1860 in Macomb County, Michigan.

Do you know the parents of my Joseph FRASER?

Are there any FRASERS in the early records of Bay of Quinte?

Are there any FRASERS with the given name Joseph? From the 1825 Census of Canada I gather that Joseph is an unusual given name for a FRASER. There are many FRASERS listed, but no Joseph. Perhaps the name was given by a Catholic wife. Do you know of any early FRASER line that turns Catholic?

I am enclosing an American dime to cover the cost of a postage stamp. I very much appreciate any clues you can give me.

Sincerely,

Mrs J. Max Garmon

FRASER FAMILY OF ERNESTTOWN

From "Robinson Papers"

1833 Letter, Isaac Fraser, Ernestown, to Peter Robinson, stating the terms on which James Hogle will relinquish claim to lands purchased from him by P.R.'s father. June 21, 1833.

Letter, Peter Robinson to Isaac Fraser, Ernestown, forwarding funds to settle account with James Hogle. June 26, 1833.

Letter, Isaac Fraser to P. Robinson, acknowledging receipt of £52: 10. July 10, 1833.

Same to same, reporting on the closing of transaction with James Hogle, "one of the Radicals", and on other land business. August 19, 1833.

Letter, Isaac Fraser to the Chief Justice. States a number of English gentlemen have purchased near Ernestown. October 16, 1833.

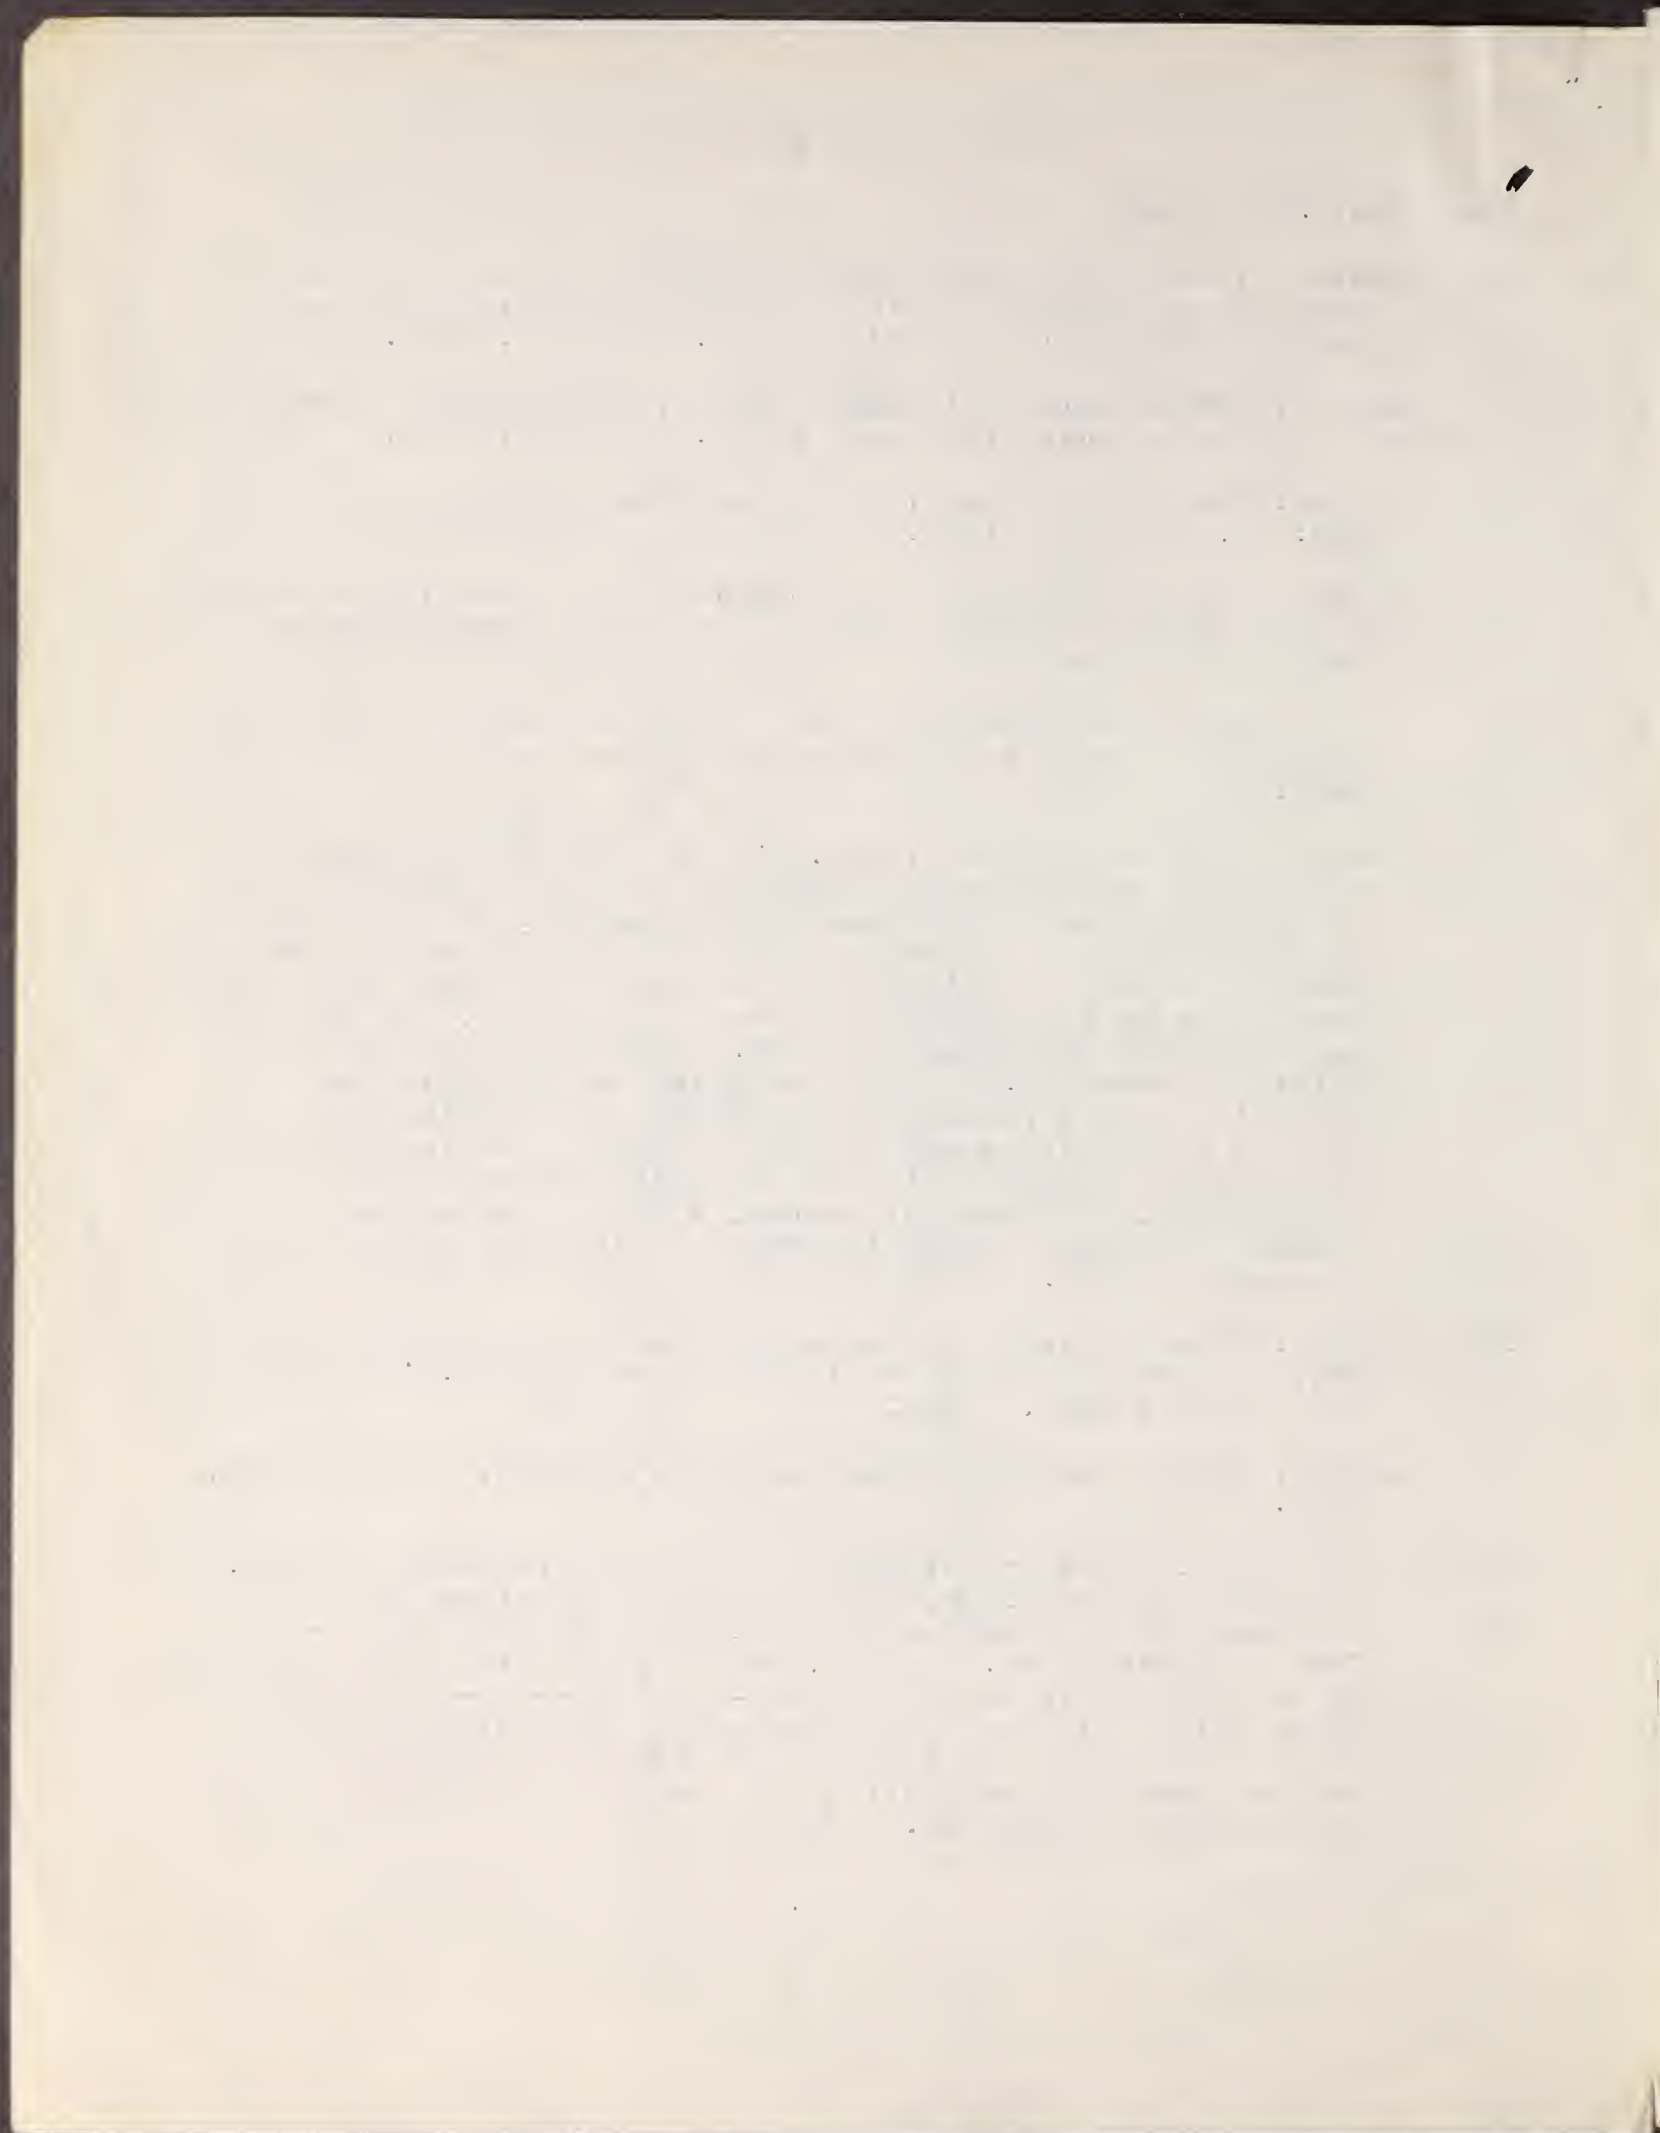

Same to same, on land business. "It is highly gratifying to witness the calm that has succeeded on the discomfiture and defection of some of the leading demagogues. Many of their deluded followers are wondering at the result of all their petitioning and contributions and begin to suspect that they were duped by designing interested individuals, and they are half inclined to believe that Dr. Johnson's definition of a Patriot is correct. Since the leaders of the Episcopal Methodist Church (which was the focus and rallying point of all the disaffection and discontent in the Province) has at last found it to be their duty or their interest to pursue a more loyal and peaceful course, I think that we may reasonably expect a long interval of quiet and prosperity." December 3, 1833.

1834 Letter, Peter Robinson to Isaac Fraser, sending remittance of £50, to procure titles for lands purchased by P.R.'s father. February 17, 1834. Copy.

P.S. I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear from you.

I am, dear Mr. [Name], very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
[Signature]

P.S. I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear from you.

Just a little of the background information for this Fraser history:

This sketchy family tree has been in the works for over 13 years and was primarily undertaken for the information and the benefit of my immediate family. There are only three persons in my family who would be in the blood line (I am childless); my twin sister has one son, and one of my brothers has two sons, the other children being adopted, but nonetheless loved as our own. I must admit I have more or less lost the very great interest I had at one time. Since starting this project many things have tended to interrupt my search - marriage; work; building and improving two homes and then selling them; quite extensive foreign travel in connection with my husband's work; death and illness in the families, etc., just the many every day occurrences of life in general. My sister, Elizabeth, was of great assistance and inspiration; much is owed to her.

Although my father died in Montreal at the age of 69 when I was just 16, I can still remember him saying that he must put on record what he knew about the Frasers (he was an only child) - that they had come to America many many years ago; that his family were connected in some way with the Fraser looms (have not been able to find confirmation of this); that his Aunt married a Massey; that as a child he had quite a number of old aunts and elderly grandmothers who had lived to great ages; that he, himself, had been born on a great-grandfather's farm near Brooklin, Ontario, near Whitby (Elisha T. Fraser's); that as a young boy he returned to Belleville with his father and mother to live until as a young man he made his home in Montreal (his mother being the former Mary Elizabeth Sanderson whose family and many relatives resided there - our family having a plot in Belleville Cemetery; his father was Isaac Allan Fraser, a carriage-maker). Isaac Allan's home still stands in good condition in Belleville, just near the watertower.

Needless to say, my father never did write up a Fraser history, so I am sending this along to you before time runs out on me.

I began my search in the Fraser history after coming across an old postcard announcing the death of Uncle Josiah Fraser from Emma Massey in Campbellford, addressing my father as Dear Cousin Albert. With my sister, I visited the area and met Percy Fraser (descendent of Josiah Fraser); Grant Massey (descendent of Esther Fraser); Mrs. Florence Fraser Bull (descendent of John Fraser). These persons lived in the vicinity of Centreton, Grafton and Cobourg, some dozen years ago. We found out we had some similar family photographs and to make a long story short, we discovered our relationship to one another.

Through search and a great deal of correspondence with Archives in Ottawa, land and tax offices in Ontario, and Montague, Mass., the great help of Marion Massey Nicholson, Horace J. Fraser, and Percy Fraser, death notices and the good offices of the Mormon Church, we have come up with identical tracings of the family, so I am very certain of the results, incomplete as they may be for some branches of the family.

You will be as surprised as I at the changing of the name from Fraser to Frizzel and then back to Fraser, in both instances due to their loyalty to their British heritage. Also there was the usual variation in spelling which is to be expected with most of the old family names found in ancient records; i.e. Frazer, Frazier, Frizel, Frizzell, Frisel, etc.

You may add your own knowledge to this sketch of the family and I, too, shall add information as it may come to light. Trust this will be of interest to you, and am sorry that it is not more complete and informative for your particular branch, whatever it might be, but it will at least give you a clue to the really ancient part of the family.

I. JAMES FRIZZELL*
(Fraser)

b. 1627 (possibly at Buchan, in Aberdeenshire, Scotland)
d. Feb. 6, 1717, age 90; m. Sarah Busketh, d. Feb. 1, 1712.

(Roxbury, Conn. Church records)

James settled in Roxbury, Mass. (Woodstock) in 1652. Had Lot 35 in Woodstock. Family tradition is that James arrived in New England with the political prisoners who had engaged in the disastrous battles against Cromwell's forces and was one of the Clan Fraser, prominent as adherents of Charles II. It is believed he was taken prisoner with his brother William and may have been one of the prisoners sent to Barbados and then came to New England. After the Battle of Worcester many Frasers were sold as slaves by their captors and sent there for a period of time. It apparently seemed prudent to change their name to Frizzell (an ancient form of the name Fraser and a sept of the Clan Fraser) in order to protect their families left in Britain.

James Frizzell had ten children, among whom was: Capt. James

II. CAPT. JAMES FRIZZELL
(Fraser)

b. Oct. 1, 1658, Roxbury, Mass. (Woodstock)
d. 1740 or 1748 He married Mary.

(was baptized at John Eliot's Church, Roxbury)

Capt. James Frizzell was sent on Expedition to Canada in 1696. In 1705 he petitioned the Council to return with his family to Roxbury to take care of his parents; petition was granted.

(Bought Lot No. 14, Woodstock,
Among his children was son Isaac. (Conn.)

III. ISAAC FRIZZELL

V. ELISHA TORRY FRIZZELL
 (Fraser)

Son of Elisha Frizzell of Woodstock, Windham, Conn.

b. Nov. 8, 1775, Montague, Mass.

m. Clarissa Welch b. Suffich, Feb. 23, 1778.

(Elisha and Clarissa both buried in Academy Hill Cemetery) (Massey family burying ground near Grafton, Ontario, recently restored historical site). (Grandaughter, Esther Fraser, married Solon Massey).

About this time the family apparently felt forced to revert to their original name Fraser.

(It has been family tradition that the Frasers of our family were U.E. Loyalists. However, they did not come directly to Canada after the American Revolution. It is thought that because they were Loyalists they may have been persecuted after the war for their loyalty to the British and because of this harassment may have been forced to give up their land and settle in Canada, hence they reverted to their original name of Fraser to avoid oppression. This seems to be the logical explanation in view of the date of returning to the original name. (Incidentally at the same time Hebzibah changed her name to Elizabeth about 1779.) However, this is pure speculation, but does seem to be a good reason.

Prior to leaving, he was in Colonel Fisher's Company, Tryon County Militia. He had a wife and six children, of whom George Jr. and James were also in the R.R.N.Y. They settled at Fredericksburgh, Ontario.

13. HAN URY OGH Tenant Royal Grant

b. Germany. Naturalized at Albany March 8, 1773. On May 9, 1767 Georg Ogd was in Captain Marx Potoy's Company, Burnet's Field. George Ogd was a private in Colonel Peter Bellinger's 4th Regiment, Tryon County Militia. A George Ogd was taken prisoner by the British in 1780.

While Commander L.F. Bellinger, in MacWethy's "Book of Names", page 7, suggests that Ough and Ogh became Ox or Ochs later, it seems more likely that it became Hough, a German name frequently found in the Mohawk Valley and on one occasion, in the list of Loyalists. Sir John Johnson states that there were upwards of 100 tenants on the Royal Grant in 1776, but their names are not saved, except as mentioned in this ledger. A Hans Ury Hough was a tenant of Sir John Johnson at Sacandaga in 1776, having taken land in 1771. On the U.E. Loyalist lists are a John and George Hough, both former settlers at Johnstown. A John George Hough, born in Wurtemberg, came in 1754 with his brother-in-law, Martin Leffler, and settled just north of Tribes Hill where he died in 1813, aged 101. It seems likely that all these men were related, and that the family split at the Revolution, like many other Mohawk families.

14. DUNCAN McARTHUR

b. Livingston Manor about 1753. Enlisted May 1, 1760 in Captain Peter Barnes' Company, County of Albany. Blue eyes, fair complexion, sandy hair. Height 5'7". On September 25, 1775 he took 100 acres of land of Sir John Johnson. He left Johnstown with Sir John in 1776, serving as sergeant in the R.R.N.Y. He settled at Charlottenburgh, Ontario, together with another Duncan and a Donald, both in the R.R.N.Y.

References: 1904 Ontario Archives, page 368; 1897 Report of New York State Historian; Rent Roll of Kingsborough Patent; Pringle, p. 386

N.B. In 1790 a Duncan McArthur lived west of Johnstown. Probably a different man of same name. Many Scots came to Johnstown immediately following the Revolution, and their names are often the same as former settlers who had left. One of the U.E. McArthurs may have returned, but it is most unlikely, considering the bitterness that lasted nearly a hundred years.

24. ANNANIAS ARCHER

Had 100 acres of land from Sir William Johnson, taken on March 25, 1771. He was an enlisted man in Colonel Fisher's 3rd Regiment, Tryon County Militia in the Revolution.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough Patent; MacWethy, 150.

25. THOMAS ALLEN

Had 100 acres of land from Sir John Johnson in the Kingsborough Patent, from September 25, 1774. He is listed as an enlisted man in the 3rd New York Regiment, and in the Associated Exempts of Tryon County.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough Patent; MacWethy, p. 175; New York In The Revolution.

26. JACOB KOGHNOT

Son of John Everhard Koghnot (Coughnet) who was naturalized at Albany September 11, 1761, and who had Lot 16 in the Western Allotment of Kingsborough Patent in 1764. Jacob had 100 acres of land in Kingsborough from Sir John, as of September 25, 1775. He married Catherine Warner, and was taken prisoner by the British May 21, 1780. In 1803, he bought a farm from his brother, Luke, which he deeded to his son-in-law, George Keck, Jr. husband of Catherine Koghnot. He was an enlisted man in Colonel Fisher's 3rd Regiment, Tryon County Militia, and, later, in the Associated Exempts. His father was a shoemaker to King George III before coming to America; his family long had bells silver said to have been made from discarded buckles which the King had turned in with his old shoes. Some of this family were Loyalists, and continued to spell the name in the old way: VanKoughnet.

References: Rent Roll of Kingsborough; MacWethy; Pringle, 71; Mrs. Bethune Grant: "From Philadelphia Bush to Albany Bush".

27. JOSEPH HAYNES

b. Germany. Came to America in 1764. Had 100 acres of land on Lot 157 in the Eastern Allotment of Kingsborough Patent in 1768 or 1769. He went to Canada in 1781 "because the rebels persecuted him", and was a private soldier in Butler's Rangers. He had three sons: Christophar, Joseph, Jr., and Michael, all in the R.R.N.Y. One son was killed. After the War, the family settled at Williamsburg, Ontario.

Dear Dr Burlingame,

Thank you so much for the reply to my inquiry.

I have received further information on my Fraser family from the Provincial Archivist, but I doubt whether it is enough for a start. I am trying to contact other branches of the family in hope they may possess more information.

Mr Tuckerson, the Archivist, stated that "Elizabeth Ann Fraser (Braintree), Spinster, daughter of Captain Thomas Fraser, U. C. L. received script for 200 acres of land on October 8, 1840.

No land was ever located to her...

A memo by William Osborne (Agent), dated April 30, 1841 mentions that she is 'now the wife of William Smith'.

Mr. McKee has a file of correspondence from one of Elizabeth Fraser's grandchildren Edmund Smith. He indicated in his letters that Elizabeth Fraser's father was given 1200 acres of land for service in the Canadian army. The letters list Captain Thomas Fraser's children as Kenneth (who received the homestead at Bells), Thomas (who settled at Kottawa, Ontario), Susanna and Elizabeth Ann (who was born approximately 1816 or 17).

Elizabeth Ann and William Smith were Baptist. I do not know if they were raised in the Baptist faith. I have checked some published church records for Ernest Town and although there are Frasers - I have yet to find any that I seek.

the family tell me that some of the Chattertons were in Windsor at the turn of the century. I will try to follow that lead also, as Elizabeth A. Smith (nee Thayer)'s mother was a Chatterton.

Could you tell me if there were any Baptist churches at Bath in the late 18th and early nineteenth centuries? If so are their records available?

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Daniel H. Davis

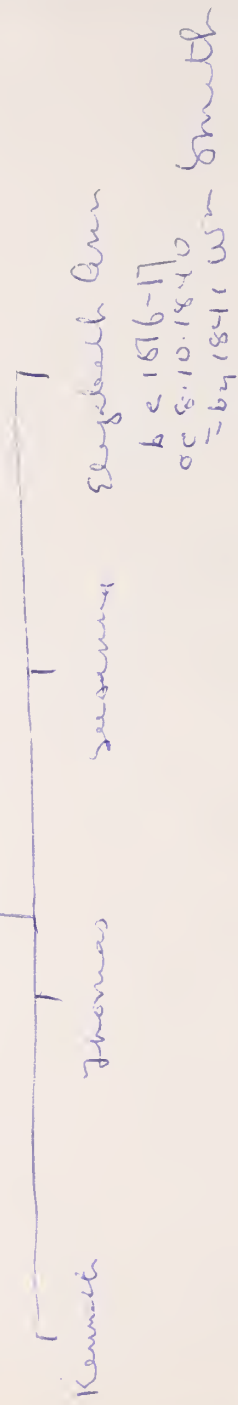

P.S. Older members of the family state the Captain Thayer was a university man. How could this information be useful?

Dear Sir,

I would like to trace some of my family in your county and I am unaware what papers and documents are available. Hopefully there may even be a family history.

I am the great-great granddaughter of Elizabeth A. Traser born at Bath, Ontario in 1815. I believe her father was Thomas Traser, her mother's maiden name was Chatterton. The older people in the family tell me that the Traser's might have had several land grants. My great-great grandmother having one at or near the location of Toronto. The family was of United Empire Loyalist stock and Elizabeth A. Traser's father was a university man, and an officer in the War of 1812. All this information is just word of mouth, I'm afraid.

Elizabeth A. Traser married William Smith, born in Ipswich England and settled in Essex County in about 1840. I know my great grandfather was born there in 1840.

If you could suggest a plan of attack or have knowledge of someone working on this family I would greatly appreciate the help

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. R. H. Davis

THE FRASER FAMILY.

I

Daniel FRASER, of Scottish descent, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1735. When a young man he removed to Albany County, New York Province. Here he married, 2 April, 1760, Sarah Conklin. He joined General Burgoyne and served in the campaign of 1777. Subsequently, he, with several of his Conklin in-laws were imprisoned in Albany. He was still a prisoner on 18 April, 1778, and on 11 Aug., of the same year, he was transferred from the Albany City Hall to the Fort on account of being sick. In the Fall of 1778, he broke jail and went in hiding. In August, 1779, it was rumored that he was at his home with his family. In September an attempt was made to round up the Tory Fraser and his Conklin in-laws, but it was not successful, likely because they had departed to the British Forces in Canada. Fraser was subsequently employed as an artificer. In 1784, he, with his family, settled in Ernesttown Township. By 1797 he had been appointed a magistrate, in which capacity he drew 1200 acres of land.

His children by Sarah Conklin were:

1. Sarah, born in 1761, died young.
2. John, born 6 July, 1762; died in August, 1829.
3. Esther, born in Dec., 1763; married John Carscallen, and died 3 Feb., 1854.
4. Rebecca, born 5 Oct., 1766; died in 1784.
5. Margaret (see below).
6. Andrew, born 7 Aug., 1769; died 30 March, 1855.
7. Abraham, born 16 Feb., 1771; died 10 April, 1841. He married Hannah Randolph (sister of my great, great grandfather, James Randolph, Jr.).
8. Daniel, born 22 Oct., 1772; died 10 Dec., 1847.
9. Hannah, born 23 Sept., 1774; died 20 Apr., 1862.
10. Isaac, born 19 Sept., 1779; died 2 July, 1858.
11. Jacob, born 27 June, 1782; died in June, 1854.

Sarah Conklin Fraser died at Ernesttown in March, 1791, aged 51 years less 10 days.

He married, second, in January, 1773, Elizabeth Davis (nee Grant).

Their child was

12. George, born 19 Dec., 1774; died 25 Nov., 1871.

Daniel Fraser died in Sophiasburgh in January, 1812.

Margaret Fraser, the fifth child, married Joshua Booth, a Loyalist.

Sarah Conklin Fraser died at Ernesttown in March, 1791, aged 51 less ~~120~~ 10 days.

In Jan., 1793, Daniel Fraser married Elizabeth David, widow. (née Grant)

Children:

George, born Dec. 19, 1794; died 25 Nov., 1871.

Daniel Fraser died in Sophiasburgh, Jan., 1812.

Catharine Fraser, daughter of Isaac Fraser, died May 25, 1885, aged 82 years.
She married Isaac Asselstine, who died Nov. 3, 1870, aged 80 years.

The Factory (Asselstine's Mills) was built by Squire Fraser and sold to Asselstine.

Van Deusen Family

State Library, Albany, N.Y.

Thomas Davis, b. about 1740 in the Mohawk Valley, near Schenectady, married about 1765, Elizabeth Grant. Family tradition states that during the War of the Revolution, he lost his property, and soon after, removed to Canada, settling in Shurlow, Hastings Co., where he died in a short time. After his death, Elizabeth Grant married Daniel Fraser, by whom she had one son,

George, born about 1795, who married Mary Van Blaricom. ;
Fraser also died, when she married, as a third husband, Philip Shortt, brother to Samuel H., wife of Caspar Van Deusen.

Napanee Beaver Tri, 28 Oct, 1898 FRASER

Isaac Fraser, aged 28, 6' 0", died 11 Sept 1898 of Typhoid fever in Chickamauga Hospital, Georgia. He had enlisted in Capt. Brown's cowboy troop for 2 years. He, with brothers, Truman and Percy, sons of the late Isaac Fraser of 6th concession, Ernesttown, left for Montana. Truman and Percy took up land and began stock raising.

Isaac taught school and later entered State University, Lincoln, Nebr., to study law. In the spring of 1898 Isaac and Percy enlisted. Isaac became Sergeant.

Dear Miss Fraser:

Your letter of 2nd inst. arrived this A.M. I hasten to reply, as I am learning, rather late in life, to strike while the iron is hot. Otherwise, your letter might get buried unanswered in a file, as many others have.

I have been an amateur genealogist for many years, and am particularly interested in our early families, mainly those of Loyalist descent. Among these are the records of our families of this region. In all, I have more than 800 family files, some large, some small.

The Daniel Fraser of whom you write was a Loyalist settler in Emmettown Township. A record of his family shows that he was born near Philadelphia in 1735, and married in New York State in 1750, Sarah Conklin. They were living in Albany County, New York, when the Revolution began. He joined the Loyalist forces, and, as he was a mechanic (artificer) with a knowledge of guns (perhaps he had previous service) he was attached to Col. Barr's (German) Artillery. He died in Emmettown in 1812.

Mrs. Fraser, the first wife, belonged to a prolific family settled in Albany County. She was mother of all his children, except George, a child of his second wife. Sarah Conklin Fraser died in March, 1791, aged 51 years less 10 days. In January, 1792, Fraser married Elizabeth Davis (nee Grant), widow.

Children by first wife:

Sarah, born in 1761; died young.
John, born 6 July, 1762; died August, 1809; served in 53rd Reg't.
Arthur, born Dec., 1763; died 3 Feb., 1804.
Rebecca, born in 1766; died in 1784.
Margaret, born 25 Aug., 1767; died 5 July, 1847.
Andrew, born 7 Aug., 1769; died 30 March, 1845.
Abraham, born 15 Feb., 1771; died 10 April, 1841.
Daniel, born 22 Oct., 1772; died 10 Dec., 1847.
Hannah, born 28 Sept., 1774; died 20 April, 1862.
Isaac, born 19 Sept., 1777; died 2 July, 1852.
Jacob, born 27 June, 1782; died June, 1844.

Child by second wife:

George, born 12 Dec., 1794; died 25 Nov., 1871.

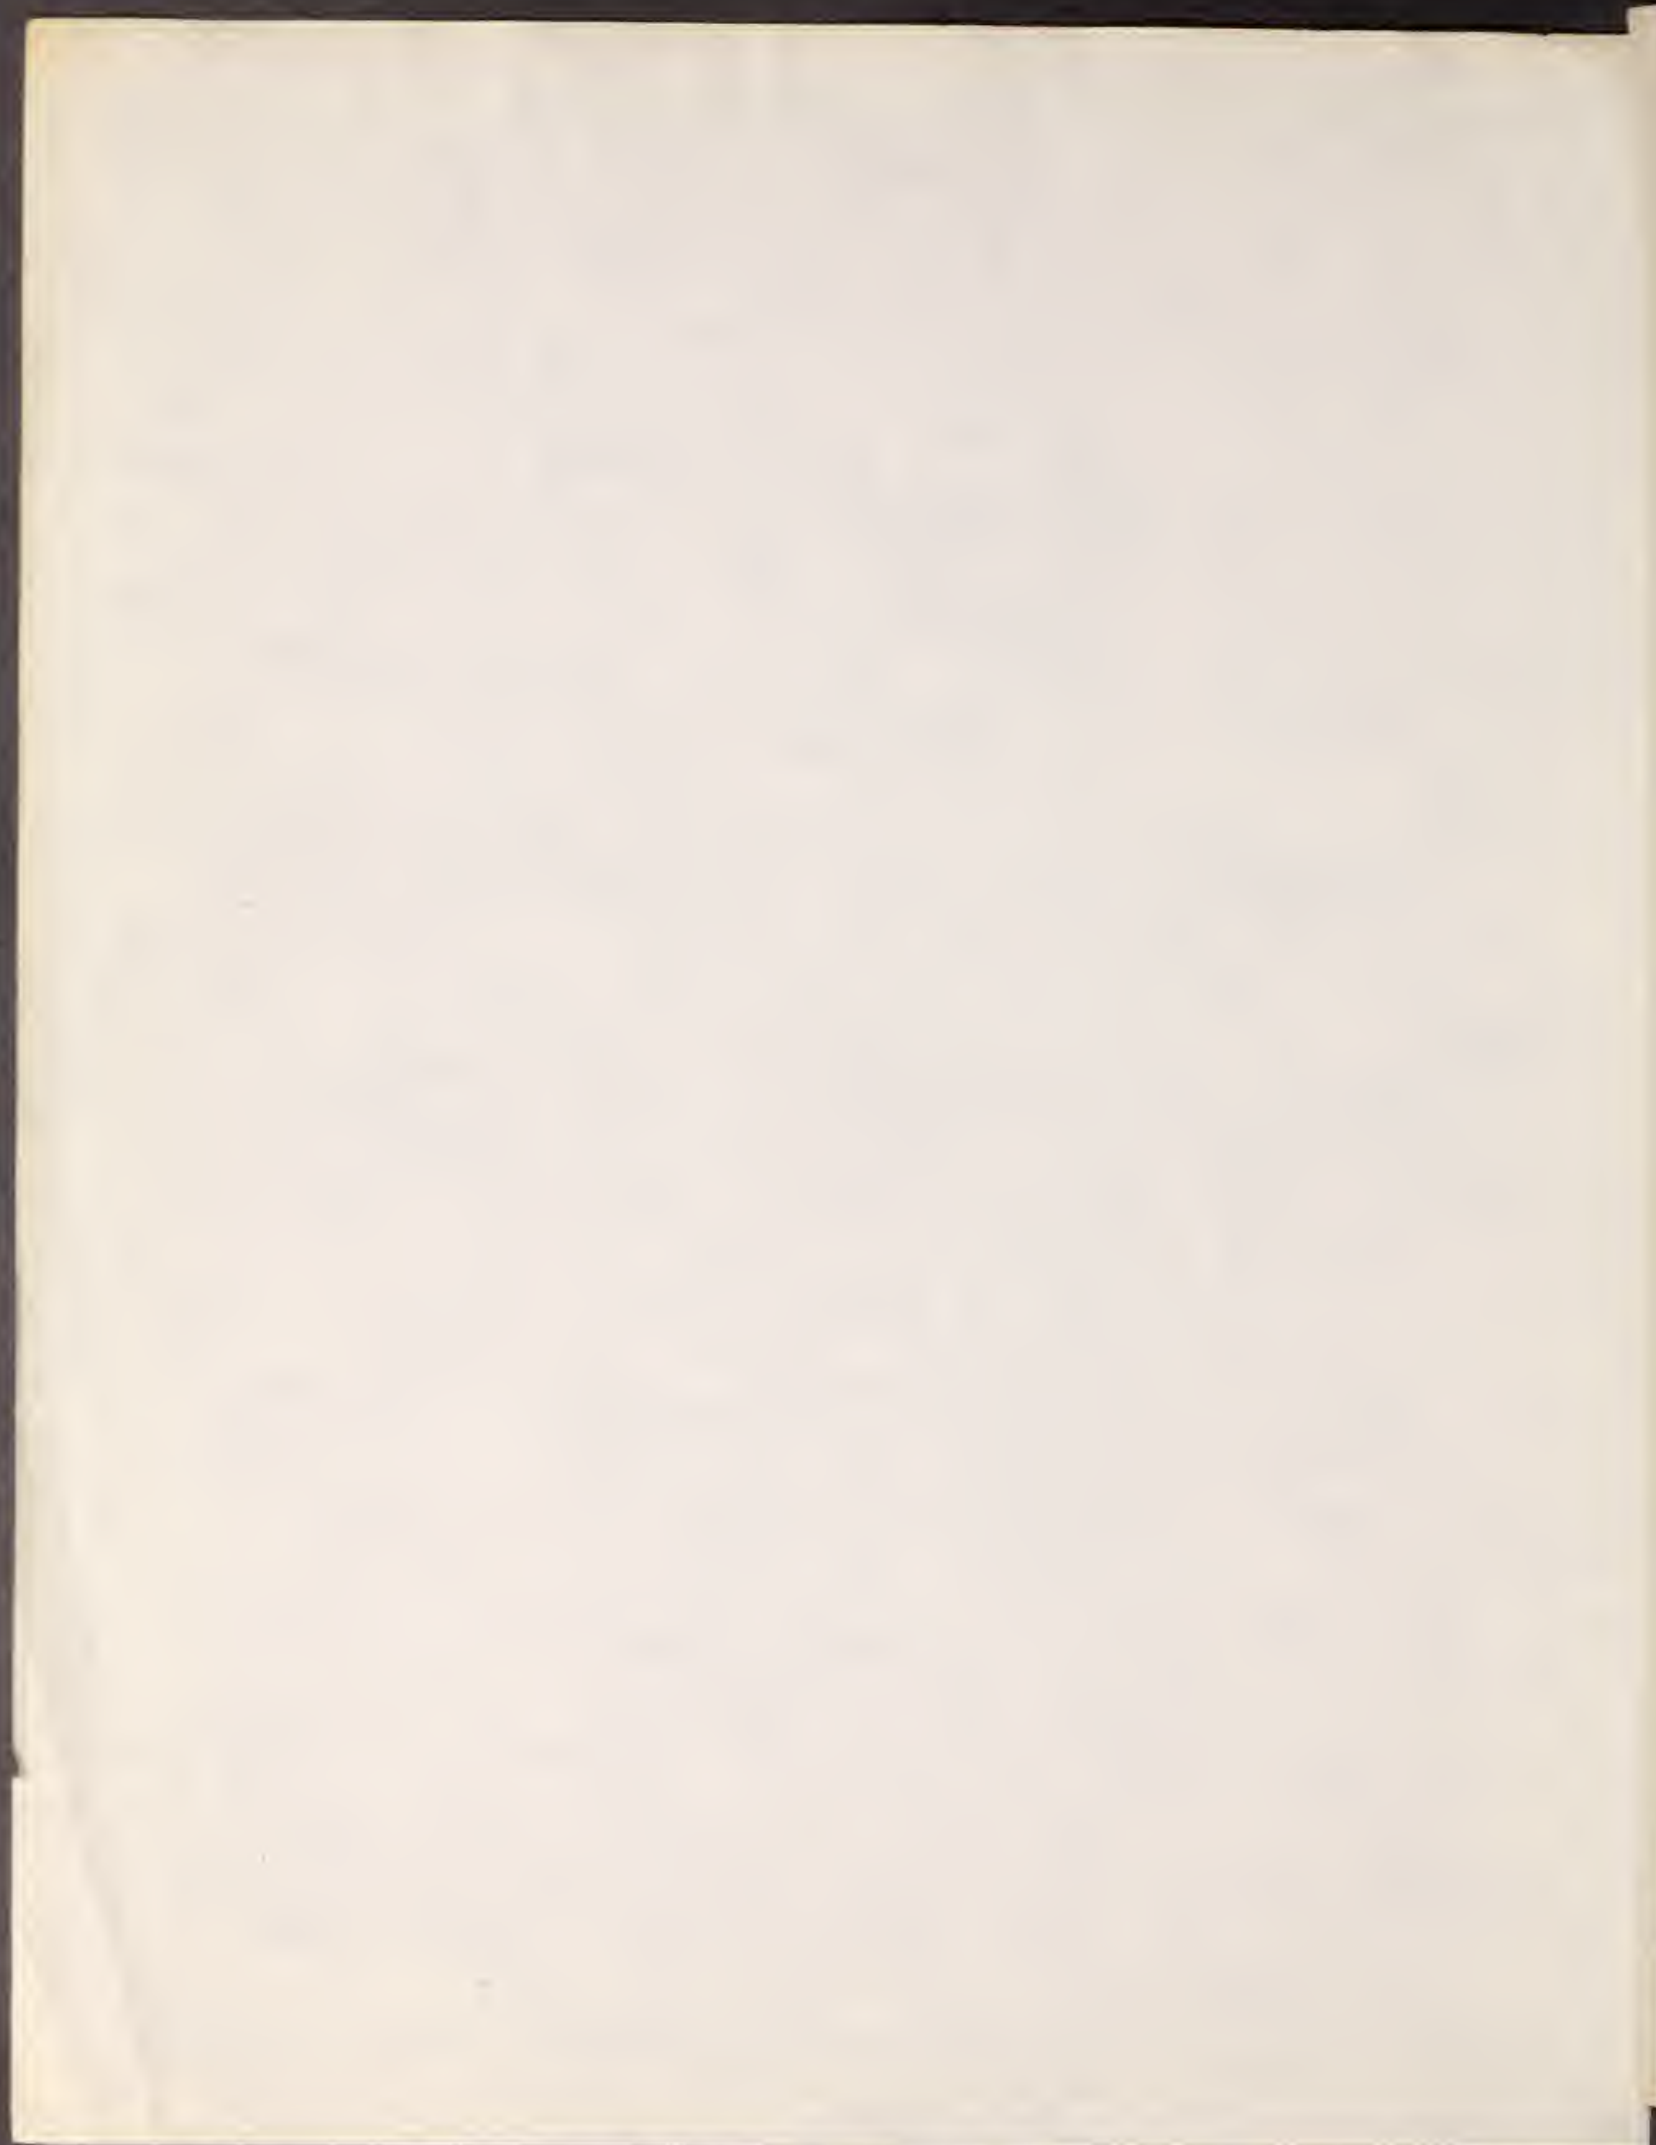

This family did not have any residence in Michigan, unless it was in younger generations. In fact, Michigan, except for Detroit, was not settled until years after 1784.

I have a list of the children of Isaac and his wife, Hannah Staring, and there was no Joseph so recorded.

I have an extensive file on this Fraser family. You are welcome to look it over if you should ever come this way.

I trust that this letter answers your queries.

Sincerely,

Lennox and Addington Historical Society

"Binding The Present With The Past"

Dear Dr. Burleigh-

Knowing that you are an interested authority on historical events and personages of the past, we are hoping that you might be able and willing, to pass on to us any knowledge you might have of the descendants of the "Squire Isaac Fraser", who was the first Registrar of our County, with an office at Mill Haven. He died in 1858.

In our Museum records, there are Frasers, innumerable, mentioned here and there, but, so far no way of linking one to another, with any certitude.

Isaac Fraser married Nancy Storrington
A son, Charles, followed him as County Registrar, and later was reeve of Ernesttown.

A daughter, Catherine, m. Michael Asselstine of Asselstine's Mills.

A daughter, Nancy, m. David Aylesworth. One of their sons was Sir Alan Aylesworth, M.P.P.

A daughter, Sophia, m. David James Waggoner, (a friend of Sir John A's).

A Waggoner daughter, Nora, m. John Baxter of Baxter's Grange.

The Baxters had two daughters -Isobel- unmarried-school teacher.
-Anne m. D.N. McCallum of Kingston.

These two ladies have asked us for help in tracing other descendants of Isaac Fraser. Also interested in any descendants of Daniel Fraser a brother of Isaac's, who settled in Sophiasburgh.

We think that the Frasers were Presbyterian and that they voted Tory.

If any pertinent facts about these interesting families are known to you, our Society would much appreciate hearing from you. Or if you could suggest any source of information. In the meantime I shall continue to inquire and to dig.

I, personally, am looking forward to hearing you speak to us on Jan. 23.

Wishing you a very interesting Year,
Sincerely yours,

Mrs. K. M. Bell.

Curator L. and A. County Museum.

P. S. Isaac Fraser was the great grandfather of these two sisters.

Dear Mrs. Bell:

I am sorry that I am unable to supply these ladies with details of descendants of Isaac Fraser. My main interest has been in the ancestry and children of U. S. Loyalists. So, when it came to the grandchildren, I left it up to the families to seek their own. It is so much more gratifying, as well as interesting, to gain knowledge by our own efforts, instead of asking someone to do it for them.

The names of the parents and siblings of Isaac Fraser I found in the papers of your historical society. These I copied many years ago in the "Upper Room", by the consent of the late Lawyer Herrington, a very kind and hospitable man, even though, at that time, I was not a member of the society.

Isaac Fraser had a brother, Daniel, but, if I am right, he married and resided in our County. It is known that Daniel Fraser, Sr., married a second time, from which marriage came a son, George, who lived in Sophiasburgh. So, I wonder if these ladies are confused in this matter.

As I noted earlier in this epistle, my main interest has been with the Loyalist, his ancestry and activities during his lifetime. So, I do know much more about Daniel Fraser, his wife and their activities in the U. S. A. prior to 1784. I do know a great deal about the ancestry of Isaac Fraser's wife, Nancy Staring, because of her connection with a very noted woman, Mrs. McGinness, whose life story was the subject of a paper read before the Ontario Historical Society, at its meeting in Belleville, and to be found in the 1950 volume of Ontario History.

Thank you for your interest in the up-coming talk which I hope to present on January 30th next. But, do not be too disappointed if it does not meet up to your expectations.

Yours sincerely,
